Hi Friends, and Happy Friday!

This morning I was thinking about how difficult 2020 has been for people all over the world, and how sometimes it's been hard to keep my chin up. What's been getting me through are my partners -- my husband and my best friends. What would I do without them sticking by me and reminding me I'll get through this?

It's the same for Komen Missouri -- YOU are our partners, helping us weather this storm. With so many issues demanding attention today, I want to THANK YOU SO MUCH for sharing some of yours with Komen. I deeply appreciate those of you who've made donations or signed up for the Virtual MORE THAN PINK Walk, and to our corporate partners of the Walk (see below) -- your support sustains our fight to end breast cancer.

Who are your partners? As you begin your weekend, consider reaching out to thank them. And think about what you can do to hold them up during this time. This is how we'll all make it through.

In gratitude,
